

Uniting the Generations: Japan Conference to Promote Intergenerational Programs and Practices August 2 – 4, 2006 (Wed.-Fri.)

Post conference: International Academic Meeting on Intergenerational Issues and Initiatives
August 5, 2006 (Sat.)

Waseda University International Conference Hall
Shinjuku-Ward, Tokyo, Japan
Conference website: <http://www.jiua.org/2006/>

Sponsors

Japan Intergenerational Unity Association
Pennsylvania State University
Shinshu University

Registration Fee

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------|
| A. 3-day pass (Days1-3) | |
| Regular | $145 (¥12,000) |
| Student | $ 75 (¥4,000) |
| B. 4-day pass (Day1-4) | $175 (¥15,000) |
| Student | $ 85 (¥6,000) |

Note: Fees in $$ are based on $=110 Yen currency rate, and include currency conversion fees.

U.S. Contact

Pennsylvania State University
Matt Kaplan, Ph.D. msk15@psu.edu
(814) 863-7871

Japan Contact

Japan International Unity Association: www.jiua.org
mkuraoka@jiua.org sugioka@jiua.org
011-81-3-3430-1899 (Phone/Fax)

Day 1

Site visits :

Intergenerational Shared-sites, Intergenerational Childcare Service Sites

Day2-4

Keynote presentations, workshops, and hands-on cultural learning sessions (e.g., traditional Japanese play, music, and drumming circles). Intergenerational specialists from 7 countries.

Presentations and Sessions on following tracks

- Intergenerational strategies to promote cultural awareness and appreciation
- Models focused on community development and environmental education and preservation
- Intergenerational programs in early childhood settings
- Intergenerational programs in educational settings
- Intergenerational programs in human service settings (including shared-sites)
- Research and evaluation on intergenerational programs
- Demographic and social changes with implications for intergenerational relations
- Social policies to strengthen intergenerational engagement and understanding
- Networking and coalition-building strategies at the national and global levels

 Translation services are available at most sessions

Collaborators and Supporters in Japan (partial list)

- Ministry of Health, Labor, and Welfare
- Shinjuku Ward
- Sawayaka Welfare Association
- Foundation for Senior Renaissance
- Tokyo Metropolitan Institute of Gerontology
- Wonderful Ageing Club
- Aging Integrated Research Center
- Japan Youth Volunteers Association
- Japan Society for Child Study
- National Federation of UNESCO Associations in Japan
- Association for Integration of School and Community
- Association for Children's Environments
- Art Education Research Institute
- International Longevity Center Japan
- Japan Association for an Ageless Society
- Commemorative Organization for the Japan World Exposition ('70)

